Internet Law Works-in-Progress Event
March 16, 2013
Benson Center, Santa Clara University

MARCH 14 DRAFT – SUBJECT TO CHANGE!

Time allocations: project = 20 minutes (presentation AND discussion); paper = 30 minutes (presentation AND discussion). Papers will be posted shortly.

8:40-9:10	Continental Breakfast—Williman Room
9:10-9:15	Welcome—Williman Room
9:15-10:35	Speech #1—Parlor B * Enrique Armijo / Kill Switches, Forum Doctrine, and the First Amendment's Digital Future (paper) * Ira Steven Nathenson / Super-Intermediaries, Code, Human Rights (paper) * Jonathon Penney / Internet Censorship, Information Conflict, and the Cycle of Global Telecommunications Technologies (project)	Privacy #1—Parlor C * Seny Kamara / Crypto-Enabled Clouds and Their Impact on Privacy and Policy (project) * Andrea M. Matwyshyn / Bankrupting Privacy (project) * Chris K. Ridder / Uncertainty in IP Address-based Identification: protecting the innocent internet service subscriber (project) * Yana Welinder / Facing Real-Time Identification Applications (project)
10:35-10:50	Break
10:50-12:20	Intellectual Property—Parlor B * Lydia Pallas Loren / Viability of $30 Casebook (paper) * Mark Lemley, Software Patents and the Return of Functional Claiming (project) * Carlos Andres Rubio Luna / 'Blackstonian Copyrights' and other -Flawed- Claims about the Early History of Copyrights (project) * Nicolas Suzor / Collective action models in open access publishing (project)	Privacy #2—Parlor C * Jennifer Stisa Granick / Principles for Regulation of Government Surveillance in the Age of Big Data (paper) * Chloé S. Georas / Automated Coloniality Of Power: How Predictive Technologies Entrench The Preemptive Othering Of "Bad Communities" (paper) * Michael L. Rich / Flipping the Murder Switch: Limits on the Perfect Preventive State (paper)
12:20-1:40	Lunch. Group Photo at 1:30!

1:40-3:00	Speech #2—Parlor B * Anjali S. Dalal / Administrative Constitutionalism and the Growth of the Surveillance State (paper) * Felix Wu / The Ontology of Speech (paper) * Marc Jonathan Blitz / School, Work, Speech, and CyberKant (project)	Privacy #3 and more—Parlor C * Adam Candeub / Search Engines: Antitrust Law in the Feedback Economy (project) * Aaron E. Ghirardelli / A proposal for the reform of the Hague Convention on the Service Abroad: Internet as a way to increase efficiency in civil proceedings worldwide (project) * Woodrow Hartzog / Social Data (project) * Raizel Liebler / Out of the Public Eye?: The Interaction Between Public and Private Persona and its Implications for the Interaction between Employees and Social Media Policies (project)
3:00-3:20	Break
3:20-4:50	Speech #3—Parlor B * Jane Bambauer / Is Data Speech? (paper) * Anupam Chander and Uyen P. Le / The Free Speech Foundations Of Silicon Valley (project) * David Levine and John Tehranian / It'll Break Your Heart Every Time: Baseball, the Internet and Romanticism * Joseph A. Tomain / Commercial Speech Doctrine in the Digital Age	Cybercrime/Cybersecurity—Parlor C * Derek Bambauer / Ghost in the Network (paper) * Lucian Vasiu / An Analysis of Computer Crime Cases brought before U.S. Federal Courts (paper) * Annemarie Bridy / Of Kingpins and Pirates: Seizure as a Weapon in the War on Drugs and the War on Piracy (project)
4:50-5:00	Wrap-up—Williman Room
5:00-6:30	Dinner—Williman Room
6:30-9:30	Game night! (room assignments TBD)

Discussants: Nicholas Bramble, Scott Boone, Valentina Bratu, Colleen Chien, Ed Felten, David Friedman, Andrew Gilden, Eric Goldman, Dan Hunter, Arash Izadi, Mark Lemley, Tim Lordan, Geoffrey Manne, Stephen McJohn, Tyler Ochoa, Daniel Seng, Peter Swire, Berin Szoka, Rebecca Tushnet, Fred von Lohmann, Peter Yu