

Dr. Xiang Wang
Managing Partner
Orrick Herrington Sutcliffe LLP
Beijing Office

Dr. Xiang Wang is the lead partner for Orrick's China-focused intellectual property practice; he spends his time between three offices: Shanghai, Silicon Valley and Beijing, where he is the managing partner. Dr. Wang assists local and foreign-based multinational companies with all aspects of their intellectual property rights in China, Hong Kong and the United States. Dr. Wang has extensive experience representing both foreign and Chinese companies protecting their R&D and IP in global markets, including IP-related, as well as product liability, litigation in the United States and China.

Dr. Wang is well recognized for his commitment to help guide the development and advancement of IP laws, regulations and cross-border relationships that affect companies doing business in China.

Dr. Wang is the author or co-author of more than 60 books and journal articles, including recent articles on China's new regulatory requirements for medical devices and pharmaceuticals and how to protect intellectual property while doing business in China and the United States.

Dr. Wang frequently speaks at international seminars and conferences about how to protect intellectual property, including disputes in patent, trademark and trade secret, securities litigation as well as product liability litigation in the United States and China.

Dr. Wang has been interviewed by numerous newspapers and news media on cross-border IP and litigation issues, including The New York Times, The Wall Street Journal, Reuters, Bloomberg, International Herald Tribune, Financial Times, CCTV "Dialogue", Law360, Asian Legal Business, China Business Law Journal, Chinese Lawyer, Chicago Herald, Managing Intellectual Property, CFO Innovations and Swedish Broadcasting Corporation.