

Renee DuBord Brown
Director, Legal – Intellectual Property
LinkedIn

Renee DuBord Brown currently serves as Director, Intellectual Property for LinkedIn, the world's largest professional network. Renee has extensive in-house counsel experience at leading technology companies, including positions at Knowles Electronics, Motorola Mobility, and Tessera Intellectual Property Corp.

Prior to going in-house, Renee was an IP litigation partner in private practice at Day Casebeer Madrid & Batchelder LLP and Howrey, LLP.

Renee's practice focuses on all aspects of intellectual property counseling, patent and trademark portfolio management, licensing and litigation. She has strong expertise in patent prosecution and patent reexamination. Her litigation experience includes patent, IP-related antitrust litigation, trademarks/copyrights, false advertising and trade secrets. Her broad commercial licensing experience includes patent licensing, technology and software licensing, OSS and standards issues.

Renee is a former clerk for the Honorable Raymond C. Clevenger, III on the Federal Circuit Court of Appeals. She has a J.D. from Stanford Law School and a B.S./M.S. in Nuclear Engineering from M.I.T. She is a member of the California bar, a registered USPTO attorney, and privacy certified under CIPP/US.